

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PARENTAL CONTRACT

As the primary educator when it comes to raising my children in the ways of the Catholic Faith, I as parent/guardian, realize that it is my responsibly to be the best example in the word and sacrament when it comes to teaching my children what it is to be Christian. I know that religious education classes are there to support what I teach my child in the home.

In order to support the religious instructors and be a living example for my child, I hereby agree to the following:

- ✘ I will see to my child's religious education by bringing them to Mass on a weekly bases as set forth in The Sunday obligation in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (ccc 2180), and observe all Holy Days of Obligation as described in the code of Canon Law cc. 1246 and cc 1247.
- ✘ I will support their religious instructors, helping, when possible if called upon.
- ✘ As parent, I will strive to make our Catholic Faith come alive in our home, by attending scheduled classes for parents and by seeking to establish a Christian family who prays and lives the Gospel message.
